

Colorado Workforce Center Resources

For people who are:

- unemployed
- underemployed
- experiencing reduced hours
- thinking about a career switch
- looking for training and/or upskilling resources

During this time, Colorado Workforce Center staff are working remotely and can assist you via email or phone. Please note: staff may be working with another client and your call may go to voicemail. Please be patient, as the staff is experiencing a high volume of calls and will return your call as soon as possible. All workforce services are also available online at www.connectingcolorado.com
